

NIMAS General Minutes December 16, 2015

Call to Order: 7:32

Carol Lenig:

Band trip reviewed:

Tonight is the last night to back out with a full refund

In January will have room sign ups. Rooms are 4 children.

If all 4 request a room, all 4 must sign up and initial their choice

If there is only a group of 2, they will be placed with another group of 2

The day of the trip, children will be given cell phone numbers of group and their chaperones

Children must always have a buddy

At the park, they are permitted to walk with friends—must report in to chaperone at assigned times

At the museum, they must stay with their groups and chaperones at request of the museum

Will have a performance Friday night and Saturday morning

Get to hotel late... Lights out by 11

Requiring the students to have 2 shower at night, the other 2 in the morning.

Chaperones walk the halls until 12:30, after that a security guard walks the halls

Children are told to not open the door to anyone besides the teachers or their chaperones.

5AM up for breakfast

Hope to be to the amusement park about 11. Leaving about 6

Children must buy their own lunch on Friday and Saturday. And have spending money if they want.

Children are responsible for carrying their own money- please try to have your child practice carrying money before this trip.

There is a mandatory meeting required for all children and their parents on April 13 at 7:00 at NMS

Full details are given at the meeting. Medical forms will be turned in the meeting night.

Joe Corbi- parents who volunteered are finding themselves to busy so we are not starting it now.

Matey's Pizza – should start in January

8th grade students who made the LHS band. There will be a mandatory meeting soon for the Hawaii trip. Mr. Zettlemoyer has not received an official date of the meeting- this information will be emailed to students as soon as we receive it.

Our band has agreed that these students can begin fundraising as soon as their payments to the NMS band are complete.

These students MUST return their uniforms at return time or you will be charged for the uniform.

December 21- PJ Whelihan Dine to Donate night. All day.

No flier needed but you must tell your server you are there for the band fundraiser.

Gertrude Hawk (Amy Burke) Has chocolate bars available

This is Amy's last year.... need a volunteer to shadow her for next year.

Weis / Giant / Shop Rite cards are available (Rebecca Escott) Cards available tonight.

This is Rebecca's last year... need a volunteer to shadow her for next year.

Wawa hoagie coupons (Michelle Parent)

The coupons are in transit.

Next sale will be the end of January. Ending at the February meeting. Deliver at the March meeting

A parent requested the price be changed to an even amount. For example: $4.50 instead of $4.29 and put that extra amount into the general fund- the executive board will discuss that at our next meeting.

Mr. Zettlemyer

Orchestra and Jazz concert went fantastic. Full house

Saturday 12/19 is the Brass Ensemble at the Sun Inn. Report at 10:45. Play from 11-12.

December 21- Jazz band is going to Country Meadows and the LV airport. From 9-2

Mr. Zettlemyer will the time that we will be at the airport so parents can join us.

Will be continuing regular early morning schedules through the holidays.

Please have you child to early rehearsal before 7:15. Child should be in seat and ready to play at 7:15

On January 30, the string ensemble has been requested to play at a local ceremony. Mr. Zettlemyer is contacting those students to see if they can attend. Head count is needed because food will be provided for the performing students and the parent that brings them

Final 8th grade trip payment is due at the January meeting

Mrs. Hriniak

Winter season going well

Please arrive on time for morning rehearsals

Winter performance will be at Broughal on February 17 (that is our NIMAS meeting too)
